

1. Which command is used to create a new Git repository?
 - a) git clone
 - b) git add
 - c) git init
 - d) git commit

2. What does the command git status do?
 - a) Shows the current branch and its commits
 - b) Shows the difference between the working directory and the staging area
 - c) Shows the difference between the staging area and the latest commit
 - d) Shows all branches and their respective commits

3. Which command is used to merge changes from one branch to another?
 - a) git branch
 - b) git merge
 - c) git checkout
 - d) git rebase

4. What does the command git fetch do?
 - a) Downloads new commits from a remote repository
 - b) Merges changes from a remote branch into the current branch
 - c) Publishes local commits to a remote repository
 - d) Creates a new branch

5. What is the difference between git reset --hard and git revert?
 - a) There is no difference between the two commands
 - b) git reset --hard is safer than git revert
 - c) git revert is faster than git reset --hard
 - d) git reset --hard undoes the last commit, while git revert creates a new commit to revert changes